

Scott A. Maus

January 28, 1958 - April 30, 2018

Scott Allen Maus, age 60, died Monday, April 30, 2018, in Bethany on University, Fargo, ND, under the care of Hospice of the Red River Valley.

Scott was born January 28, 1958, in Huntington Park, CA, the son of James and Vernetta (Christianson) Maus. He grew up in Fargo and graduated from Fargo South High in 1976. Scott worked at various jobs in Fargo, one being at a book store which he enjoyed, as he had a great love for books.

In 2000, Scott married Karen Chase and spent the next ten years in Clearwater, FL. Scott moved back to Fargo in 2010 and lived in Park View Terrace in Moorhead, MN, until his health began to fail. He moved to Twin Valley (MN) Living Center and two months ago moved to Bethany on University.

The family would like to thank all of Scott's caregivers and Hospice of the Red River Valley for their compassionate care.

Scott leaves behind his parents, Jim and Vernetta; brother, Steve, Fargo; sister, Starr (Darla), Phoenix, AZ; and many aunts, uncles and cousins. He will be dearly missed by all.

“ Jim, Vernetta, Steve and Starr -

So sorry to hear about Scott. As a fellow classmate at both Agassiz and Fargo South, I have fond memories of walking down the street to have fun with Scott shooting pool and listening to music in your basement. He was a great guy, always ready to have a few laughs. My sincerest condolences.

“ I am sending you my kindest thoughts and most heartfelt wishes. I know you are surrounded by people who love you. Anytime I had mentioned Scott's name at Cable ONE the conversation ended up talking about what a great Santa Claus he was. Love to you all.

My sympathy to the Maus Family. I went to school with Scott and had the privilege to visit with Scott 2 years ago. even though it was only for a couple of hours we shared some laughs and a lot of stories from our Fargo South days. Scott was a friend to all and brought CLASS to '76. RIP My friend your suffering is over.
